Painting I

Course Overview: What is Painting I all about?
This class explores the beginning stages of learning about the color palette, mixing, and basic brush techniques. Focus will be on exercises that encourage experimentation and class participation. The first week we cover mark making, line, shape, form, space, and color relationships/theory. As the class progresses assignments will move onto larger, more involved paintings with an emphasis on abstract imagery and composition. Homework includes maintaining a visual art journal. Students will maintain an Artsonia profile where they will continue to practice the vocabulary and language of art, explore writing artist statements and practice proper feedback and critique.

Units and Activities: What will we be learning about and doing in this course?
Throughout this course we will identify new and definitive ways to solve thought provoking visual problems. We all see the world in very different ways and we allow our classmates, instructors, friends, family and art around the world to influence and activate our internal thinking. We will be motivated to artistic expressions as we reflect on the world around us.

Students are expected to:
- Be receptive to new ideas; the seeds from which new experiences grow
- Be flexible - things don’t always go as planned
- Be curious - ask clarifying questions
- Be tolerant and respectful of different perspectives
- Take risks while avoiding limitations
- Work hard to achieve excellence
